PRIDAY MORN'G, JUNE 1, 1855.

Thus for the General Assembly has not made much progress; of course, during the first few days of a session little else is done but the reception and reference of acts, petitions, accounts, &c. to the approprinte Committees; and as the most of the real work is performed by the Committees, the sessions of the Assembly are short for the purpose of giving the Committees an opportunity to consider the matters before them. There are so many new membersit will take some time for them to become acquainted with the mode of transacting business in a Legislative body. The ses sion will probably continue through nexwack, as there is a good deal of business some of which will require careful attention, such as devising ways and means to replenish the Treasury.

UF Graham's Magazine for June is an interesting number; it contains a steel engraving and the Paris fashions.

We are indebted to the Hon. Philip Allen, for valuable Public Documents.

The Liquor Law fares about as well in Boston Courts as at Newport. The proprietor of the Revere House, and other well known liquor sellers, have been dischared because the complaint set forth the sale of "a glass of spiritous or intoxicating liquor." The Judge decided that the vas not specific, and that no pros ecution could be sustained.

Case of Contempt,-Senator Pattit who was dubbed D. D. (dirty dog) by Benton, is now a Judge in Indiana. Recently, while helding a Court, for the trial of a murderer, in Lafayette, he ordered the papers not to publish his rolings. The order being disregarded by three papers, Pettit fined each of them $100, and threatened to send all the editors to jail if they repeated the offence.

General Assembly. WAY BESSION.

TRURBDAY Morning.

The House met at 10 o'clock. Roll called, and Journal of yesterday's proceedings read and approved.

Several petitions and accounts were rerioved and referred to the appropriate committees.

An act in regard to assessing and collecting Taxes was recieved and referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The House adjourned to 3 o'clock.

Thursday Afternoon. The House mot pursuant to adjournment. Act incorporating Tiverton Bank; referred to Committee on Corporations.

The Committee on State Property were discharged from the further consideration of the Petition of the Trustees of the Long Wharf Newport; the Petition was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

An Act investing the Mayor with power, with the consent of the Aldermen, of the city of Providence, to appoint and remove City Marshal, Police Constables and City Watchmen of that city; passed.

Notice was given of intention to introduce an Act requiring a uniformity in the use of Books in Public Schools. (We presume that the intention is to carry out Sam's principles, and abolish the use of Latin, French and other foreign books in the Schools of this State.)

Petition of City of Newport et al. in regard to estate of Christopher Fry; petitioners had leave to withdraw. The Judiciary Committee recommended this action, and the House adopted the recommendation. The city thus loses about $4,000; when the report of the Committee was made by Mr. Jenckes, no member replied or explair. ed the nature of the case. Thus much for having a Knew Nothing delegation, no one of whom could or did open his mouth in regard to a matter in which the city had an important pecuniary interest.

Petition of Joseph and Maria Victoria Fortin, foreigners, for liberty to hold real estate; granted and Act passed. This is very wrong; how ridiculous for a Know Nothing Assembly to grant such a privilege! The Petition ought to have been continued with an order of notice for 21 years, in compliance with the principles of the Order.

The House adjourned until Friday morning, at 10 o'clock.

A writer has compared wordly friendships to our shadows; and a better comparison was never made; for while we walk in sunshine it sticks to us, but the moment we enter the shade it deserts us.

Roy. Dr. Pennington, of New York, was ejected from a railroad car in New York on Friday, on account of his dark complexion.

A FORT SOLD .-- Fort Scott, in Kanza Territory with all its fixtures, was sold lataly for $5000. It cost the United States gevernment, not long since the handsome amount of $165,000.

Sir Henry Bishop, professor of music in the University of Oxford, England, and the husband of Mandame Anna Bishop, died in London the 30th ult., in the 75th year of his age, in great dostitution. He was the only composer upon whom the dignity of knighthood was ever conferred by the British crown.

The Bristol Railroad, will be preped for business by the middle of June, and probably by the tenth. The track is all completed, and the rails laid except for a few rods near the station in Bristol. A locomotive, with several platform cars attached, went over the whole line from Providence to Bristol and back, on Friday.

-Patrick Hughes, a brother to the archbishop, died a few days since at Lafayette-Ville, Jefferson county, N. Y. He was an ndependent and intelligent farmer, of sixty years of age, and was very much respected by all who knew him.

Bishop Deane, of New Jersey, in his ad dress to the female graduating class, at St. Mary's Hall, Burlington, after alluding to the value of interlectual accomplishments in women, observed—

"The highest human graces that a wo man eyer won have but ensuared her soul in vanity and sin, and wrought destruction through their attractions, for the souls of others. And intellectual powers and intelligent gifts, not subordinated to the provideptial orderings of God, not chastened and controlled by His renewing grace, are, at this time, unsexing women, and thrusting an the astonished world a race of monsters in that Amazonian crew who clamer, now for 'Womath's Rights,' such as no mythology has ever dreamed of."

A Goen Nation .-- The Woonsocket Patrist in noticing Welcome Farnum, Esq., who has lust $300,000 in railroad onterprise, and is still a smilling man, says-

"He has the ambition of Napalaon, the will of Cromwell, and the final porseverance of the saints."

This will do.

Is it any more "contrary to nature" to shave the face than to trim the beard with acisaora, or cut the hair at all, or the pails?

INCIDERT IN A PASTOR'S LIFE .-- At a cer. tain time a pastor residing incieved from one of his parishioners an anonymous letter complaining in hitter terms of a hireling clergy, of his want of means, and other things usually attending the spirit in which he indulged. The pastor suspecting from whom it came, did not reply with pen and ink, neither in word and tongue, but in deed and in truth. went immediately to a grocer, and requested bim to send to a certain house, on a given street, a barrel of flour, a ham, and cortain other things. The next morning, a member of the pastor's church called at his dwelling-house and inquired of his wife for her husband. He, not being at home, the parishioner gave vent to his feelings, and said to her, "my minister has heaped coals of fire upon my head." How? enquired the wife,-"that letter," said he-Did you write it? "yes I did, he said; but I did not expect such a raply." The wife being ignorant of what her husband had done, had to be informed of all that had transpired .-As it was anticipated, nothing more was heard from the disconcerted member, nor about the hireling clergy from him. Some year and a half afterwards, that same pastor recieved at his door from a drayman, a barrel of flour, &c. It was some time before he could accertain the source whence they came. But at length, having learned that they came from that same member who had sent him the anonymous letter, and knowing him to be, as he thought, unable to make him so valuable a present; and not thinking at the time of the scene of the previous year, he thanked him very kindly for his generous deed, but intimated to him that he preferred in some way to remuner ate him; to which he instantly with tears replied, "Gnd has blessed me, Do you remember the flour;" and he stopped. It is enough to add, that neither forgot this expression of this descrying member, but at another time, and in a manner as delicate, gave him proof that his act had been thankfully cherished; nor the parishioner thereafter invelgh against a hireling clergy, but became a warm and zealous supporter of a regular and judicious ministry of the Word.

Mrs. Patterson to be Divorced,-Wo learn that the real Mrs. Patterson has turned up in Lowell. She is a California widow who has been suspected of some improprieties by the friends of her absent lord, but against whom nothing tangible could be found until the Hiss affair transpired. On Saturday last the lady was aken before a court on some preliminary proceedings for divorce, and confronted by the clerk of the Washington House, who testified that she was the lady who was entered as "Mis. Patterson," at that Holel-House counted that the real facts in this cu-Herald.

The Italian, Pianori, was sentenced to "the punishment awarded by the penal code for the crime of parricide" - something worse than the guillotine. The text of the French code is-"He shall be conducted to the place of execution in a shirt, barefooted, and with a black veil over his head; he shall be exposed on the scaffold while a cryer reads his sentence to the people, and he shall be immediately executed." Formerly the law required that the right hand should be severed at the wrist, on the scaffold, previous to his execution.
